

BRIDGING DIVIDES:
TURF, TRUTH & TRUST
AUGUST 28-30, 2022

FREE

ONLINE AND IN-PERSON AT THE UNIVERSITY OF VICTORIA

Join thought leaders and change makers from around the world for discussions on bridging global economic, social and environmental divides. Attend sessions addressing topics such as building trust amidst a crisis of misinformation, moving from extractive to regenerative approaches, and combatting social and economic exclusion.

This free, public conference will host national and international thought leaders, including:

- > Amina Mohammed, Deputy Secretary-General of the United Nations
- > The Honourable Bob Rae, Canadian Ambassador to the United Nations
- > David Johnston, Former Governor General of Canada
- > Shelagh Rogers, CBC host, former Chancellor of the University of Victoria

The conference will also host the Commonwealth Iakwəŋən Sport Declaration on Truth, Reconciliation and Partnership with Indigenous Peoples.
